Describe

Problem Statement

Frequent Flyers with lounge access need a reliable mobile application that allows them to easily access and navigate the online menus of food options available in airport lounges during layovers, providing them with a seamless and enhanced dining experience while ensuring they can make informed choices that cater to their preferences and dietary requirements.